An Apology from Magazine Convener

There were errors on the front cover and the Carnoustie Guild article on page 5 of the February magazine. On the front cover the date of the Service of Union for Carnoustie Trinity was printed as 17th January whereas it was conducted on 10th January. On page 5, a section of text was missing from the Carnoustie Guild article. A mystery how that happened as it was there is an earlier draft of the page. My apologies to Pru Milne who provided the article.

Other developments in the Magazine

The companies who sponsored the Carnoustie Contact and Panbride Update have all agreed to continue their sponsorship for the Carnoustie Trinity Church magazine. Our sincere thanks to the 5 companies for continuing to support the Carnoustie trinity with their donation towards the costs of producing the magazine.

The offer of an e-mail copy or a Large Print copy of the magazine will be extended to those who were previously Barry or Carnoustie members. To implement the e-mail option we will need your e-mail address and your agreement for that to be recorded on the Congregational Register. Information on how this will be introduced will be announced shortly. Requesting a Large Print copy can be done any time now. Please contact me by telephone – number is in Church Directory or by e-mail to dmct1@btinternet.com.

Work on amalgamating the church roll for the 3 legacy congregations into the roll for Carnoustie Trinity Church is now at an advanced stage. For magazine distribution, we will need to review the arrangements for the 3 legacy congregations. Contact will be made with all who deliver magazines shortly to explain and discuss the future arrangements.

Musings from the Manses

'For everything there is a season, and a time for every activity under heaven: a time to be born, and a time to die' (Ecclesiastes 3:1-2)

My study window in the manse looks out onto Panbride Street. It's a great place to see the world go by. The parents and children hurrying towards the school in the morning and then the joyful noise as they come home from school in the afternoon. Folks going for shopping. The various tradespeople driving up and down in their vans. Cyclists, joggers, walkers, and mums and dads pushing prams. There is always something going on.

What I have really enjoyed in these past few months is the changing of the seasons as I look out into the garden. Just a few weeks' ago, the garden was ablaze with golden daffodils and so it was quite sad to see them wither away and die. But then came the yellow and red tulips which sadly didn't last too long because of the cold sharp winds. Now the garden provides a wonderful carpet of beautiful bluebells in various shades of purple, indigo, and violet.

Looking out into the garden gives me joy especially when I have a busy day at the desk ahead of me. Even in the cold winter mornings when the trees are bare and the grass is glistening with frost, there is always something to be thankful for. And, of course, the autumn garden with the myriad of fallen leaves just waiting to be crunched is a delight.

Recently, as a church family, we have said goodbye to some well-loved members. There has been a time to mourn but also, we have seen new growth in our church. We have welcomed two new babies for baptism, Lydia and Hayley, and 5 new members by Profession of Faith, and another 2 members by Resolution of the Kirk Session. Every season brings its own sadness and joy, and we are changed because of these experiences but in every season of our lives, there is something to be thankful for. I pray that the season of summer brings you joy and peace and, who knows, even a little warm sunshine.

Blessings Annette

Both Annette and I have now been discharged from Interim Moderator duties with Arbroath churches, now that Arbirlot has followed Old & Abbey into the Union forming Arbroath & District. It's an exciting and somewhat daunting adventure for the new congregation, with a vacancy to fill to complete the Ministry Team of 3 Parish Ministers and one Youth & Children MDS.

May is the month for the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, a body that is shrinking steadily with all the new unions taking place, and facing serious challenges for the road ahead. I'm a Commissioner (again) this year, and we'll be discussing a new Apprenticeship route into Ministry, alongside many of the usual issues. More about the Assembly in the next Newsletter...

In earlier years I used to make sure of my main holidays in the middle to end of July. This was before prices got ridiculous during the English school holidays, but allowed Rhona and I to get away outside school term. Now that Rhona has retired from teaching, we're no longer tied to the timetable, and it's lovely to get away during June. This year we're hoping to take the Campervan to the Rhine valley, MoT permitting.

Holidays are part of an increasingly complex challenge for Churches. July and August used to be the quiet months, when office-bearers and Ministers alike took their holidays – now the patterns of work and retirement mean that holidays are spread throughout the year. It can be hard work trying to get key people together to plan events, and I'm so grateful for the extra time that people give to deal with the administration and mission of our congregation. In these times of accelerating change for the Church of Scotland, and our own local congregations, it is good to remember that we need to fix our eyes on Jesus to see us through.

"...Let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us, fixing our eyes on Jesus, the pioneer and perfecter of faith. For the joy set before Him, He endured the cross, scorning its shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God. Consider Him who endured such opposition from sinners, so that you will not grow weary and lose heart." – Hebrews 12: 1b-3

Treasurer's Report

At the April Kirk Session meeting it was agreed that the finance team will prepare a 5 month actual + plus a reforecast for the year and this will be presented to the June Kirk Session meeting.

The only point to make would be to reiterate the challenge around gift aid and Small Donations Scheme (GASDS). With the union our total small donations exceeded the limit and so we will not be able to claim the gift aid which the individual legacy congregations have done in the past. The solution to the problem is for tax payers to ensure that they make any donations via FWO or ideally Standing orders. A letter about this accompanies this magazine highlighting this and the Ministers will include references to the request in their congregational addresses.

Many thanks.

John Gray Finance Convener and Pat Thornton Treasurer

Panbride Church Closing Weekend

To mark the closure of Panbride Church, we are holding an open day on Saturday. 8 June 2024 from 10am to 4pm. Entry is free. During that time, you can have access to the church and galleries, the Session Room and the Museum Case. Within these areas, we have many items of interest, some of which are of considerable age. Tour Guides will be available to give you more information about the items on display and to answer your questions.

The Crypt containing some of the coffins of the Maule family will also be open that day and you are invited to take a closer look. A Tour Guide will keep you company in the Crypt and tell you about the people interred there. There will also be another Guide available to answer questions about the old and fascinating items around the outside of the church.

Once you have seen everything at the church, you may want to move down to Newton Church for tea and coffee. No tickets required but a donation box will be available. There, we shall have displays of old photographs and the Heritage Books from the Sunday School. Come and share your memories with us.

Sunday 9 June 2024

On this day there will be a closing service of Thanksgiving at 11 am. All are welcome.

Linda Nicoll

Carnoustie Trinity Church putting competition on Friday 16 August from 5.30pm onwards

We have arranged another putting competition for 16 August 2024 commencing at 5.30pm at Carnoustie putting green, to be followed by a BBQ and delicious desserts, tea & coffee in the manse garden. No, we haven't become a PGA event! Whilst Mike & Rhona will still be kindly providing the delicious desserts, tea and coffee in the garden, this time the price will include the burgers and rolls, with any profits from this 'get to know you event' going towards Carnoustie Church Building Project. You may bring additional refreshments yourself if you wish such as beer or wine.

As the putting green staff may have insufficient putters for everyone, please bring your own putter if you can.

Some Prayer thoughts for Your consideration

An extract from a prayer the May edition of Life & Work

In these days of change and transformation in our Church,
 In times of letting go and picking up,
 May our present lives reach out, with You,
 To the communities in which we are placed,
 And to the people we seek to serve
 May our incarnation in village, town and city
 Be a living reminder of your presence.
 In your church,
 With Your people,
 Laying our hands upon daily life.
 To comfort and heal, to encourage and correct,
 But always with Your grace and love at heart,
 Reaching out beyond the pages and screens,
 And into a tangible world.
 Requiring our tangible faith at work,
 For the god of all,
 Through the tangible of Your Son, our Saviour
 Jesus Christ
 Amen

Ideas from Mission Aviation Fellowship

Mission Aviation Fellowship (MAF) is a not-for-profit team of aviation professionals providing air transport in remote places. It services around 1,000 airstrips, supporting around 1,500 organisations, with around 117 aircraft, in 24 countries worldwide. Every 5.6 minutes, a MAF plane is taking off or landing somewhere in a remote spot of the world!

Day 1: Give thanks for a successful CO-PILOT trip to Kenya over Easter, when 12 young people from MAF Denmark got to experience MAF's work.

Day 2: Pray for the electricity situation in Guinea, which is very unreliable due to an explosion at a critical fuel depot in December. Pray for endurance as the team continues to navigate the new normal.

Day 3: This week, MAF teams across the world paused for a day of prayer. Praise God that we can bring all our needs before Him, and place Him at the centre of all we do!

Day 4: There are many vacancies across the MAF family. Pray for the right candidates to come forward for these positions.

Day 5: Give thanks for increased orders for audio Bibles at MAF Technologies, Papua New Guinea. Pray they would be able to meet customer demand.

Day 6: Give thanks for the growth of MAF Italy and for all the answered prayers in the last year.

Guild News from Carnoustie

The meeting on 13th March was an interesting mix of memorabilia ranging back over many years. There were photographs, china, linen (some signed by members) and books of members details from the beginning of the Guild. All the items were left on display in the Church for a couple of Sundays.

The April meeting began with a short ABM when it was agreed committee members would continue in post until the end of the session. The speaker for the meeting was rev Mike Goss who spoke movingly about the scriptures - a thought provoking talk.

We have also attended an event at Holyrood Church where we were entertained by 3 ladies and provided with a beautiful spread!

Our final event is a repeat visit to Brechin Castle Garden Centre, hopefully on June 19th and it is hoped that transport will be a mini-bus from Monifieth BB.

SPRING CLEAN

In our ever-changing climate it feels like our seasons are changing too. March and April this year did not feel very spring like. It seemed like the rain would never stop. Endless days of grey skies and a distinct unspring like chill in the air meant my winter jackets stayed at the front of my wardrobe. Slowly, ever so slowly at the start of May the air temperature has risen. Hopefully, by the end of the month spring will have really sprung.

Yet, despite the unseasonable weather there has been the renewal, the replenishment and rejuvenation that heralds the arrival of spring. It is a time of new beginnings and change is afoot. Colour has returned. The trees are about to burst into their full, abundant greenery. The landscape now is a patchwork field of green, brown and yellow. May is the month of natural busyness. With the increasing hours of daylight comes the emergence of a new energy.

I met with a friend the other day. Once our customary chat about the weather had passed, we somehow got onto the subject of spring cleaning. We both remembered how big an event this was when we were wee. Anything to do with winter which was still useful was safely stored away. Rugs and carpets were beaten outside. Windows were opened wide and the whole house feather dusted (I got to help with that!). Winter curtains replaced with summer ones. The sweep came to clean the lum – no central heating! Ornaments were washed. Dusters, dishcloths and floorcloths were in constant use. They were different then, a duster was always a yellow square, a dishcloth was either crocheted or knitted and a floorcloth was an old vest. We all wore white vests and they made excellent floorcloths! The list of jobs was endless but it heralded a time of change. It was a time to declutter and for deep cleaning. The house was spruced up and made ready for summer.

Spring can also be a time where we can declutter and deep clean our spiritual lives. A time to reassess our faith and our relationship with God. This can be a time to renew and refresh and rebuild our trust. A time to store away what is valuable to us, to discard old ways no longer needed by us and to prepare for new beginnings. It is a time to re-evaluate what is important. For example, when I am physically cleaning an object, the very fact I am tending to it and examining it may well show me that I value it all the more. Conversely, anything I may now regard as a “dust gatherer” can be discarded.

Psalm 51 v.10 Create in me a clean heart, Oh God and renew a right spirit within me.

The Church, in the widest sense, has had to face winters of uncertainty. Winter storms have resulted in falling numbers – just one example of unwelcome changes. As a result, difficult decisions have had to be made. It has had to undergo much decluttering and deep cleaning to prepare for new ways.

Here in Carnoustie, Carnoustie Trinity Church is actively engaged in a process of change. It is our time to spring clean. This will happen as a result of hard work, patience and a willingness to declutter and look for new ways to regenerate. Spring cleaning is a time to let go of the negative and invite in the positive. It is a fresh start.

Newton Panbride— Musical Memories

We are delighted that our local care homes are all bringing some of their residents to join our members to enjoy our monthly sessions. It is a real joy for our lovely helpers and the carers to see the delight of all our guests as happy memories are evoked through singing along to familiar songs with some folk also enjoying a dance. The enthusiastic playing of tambourines and maraccas add to the fun and our tea/coffee and cakes break provides an opportunity to chat.

Our next meeting in the Panbride Hall will be on Wednesday 29th May from 2.00 3.30pm and we would love to welcome more new friends to join us. Due to the holiday plans of our team we have had to change the date of our June meeting to June 19th. We are unable to run sessions in the Panbride Hall in July or August but we will be back again on the last Wednesday of each month starting on September 25th.

Our free Musical Memories sessions are suitable for those with dementia and their carers as well as anyone who would find an afternoon spent singing and chatting over a cup of tea in caring company uplifting.

Please phone Susan 854944 for more information.

Needles and Pins We’ve had a stall at two coffee mornings recently and both were successful in raising money for Church funds. Most of our items are made from donated recycled wool or fabric. Over the past year we have made knee rugs out of knitted squares and these have been much appreciated by the housebound. We have also donated rugs to Cycling Without Age Carnoustie to keep their clients warm. We have now been asked for some for the elderly in care homes so we would be pleased if our knitters can keep knitting squares.

We are now taking a break till September when we would be delighted to welcome some new members to our group. We will be part of the Church’s stall at Gala Day in July so hopefully we’ll see you there.

And finally A Short Story

This is a story about 4 people named Everybody, Somebody, Anybody and Nobody. There was an important job to be done and Everybody was sure that Somebody would do it. Anybody could have done it but Nobody did it. Somebody got angry about this, because it was Everybody’s job. Everybody thought Anybody could do it but Nobody realised that Everybody wouldn’t do it. It ended up that Everybody blamed Somebody when Nobody did what Anybody could have done.

But hopefully not at Carnoustie Trinity
